Do not ignore the clamor of Your adversaries, the uproar of Your enemies, which rises continually. Psalms 74:18 - 23

He will cover you with His feathers, and under His wings you will find refuge; His faithfulness will be your shield and rampart. You will not fear the terror of night, nor the arrow that flies by day, nor the pestilence that stalks in the darkness, nor the plague that destroys at midday. A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you. You will only observe with your eyes and see the punishment of the wicked. If you make the Most High your dwelling-- even the LORD, who is my refuge-- then no harm will befall you, no disaster will come near your tent. For He will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways; they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone. You will tread upon the lion and the cobra; you will trample the great lion and the serpent. "Because he loves me," says the LORD, "I will rescue him; I will protect him, for he acknowledges my Name. Almighty God, on that day, when all the nations of the earth are gathered against Israel, we pray that You will strike every horse with panic and its rider with madness. PRAYERS OF DECLARATION

No misfortune is seen in Jacob, no misery observed in Israel. The LORD their God is with them; the shout of the King is among them. God brought them out of Egypt; they have the strength of a wild ox. There is no sorcery against Jacob, no divination against Israel. It will now be said of Jacob and of Israel, 'See what God has done!' The people rise like a lioness; they rouse themselves like a lion that does not rest till he devours his prey and drinks the blood of his victims. Numbers 23:21 - 23:24

Sovereign Lord, may we not sin against You by failing to pray for Your people Israel. 1 Samuel 12:23

Praise be to You O LORD, for You will give rest to Your people Israel just as You have promised. Not one word will fail of all the good promises You gave Your servant Moses. 1 Kings 8:56

Let Israel rejoice in their Maker; let the people of Zion be glad in their King. Let them praise His Name with dancing and make music to him with tambourine and harp. For the LORD takes delight in his people; he crowns the humble with salvation. Let the saints rejoice in this honor and sing for joy on their beds. May the praise of God be in their mouths and a double-edged sword in their hands, to inflict vengeance on the nations and punishment on the peoples, to bind their kings with fetters, their nobles with shackles of iron, to carry out the sentence written against them. This is the glory of all his saints. Praise the LORD. Psalms 149:2 - 9

King of Glory, we praise You that You will arise and have compassion on Zion, for it is time to show her favor; the appointed time has come. For her stones are dear to Your servants; her very dust moves them to pity. For You O LORD will rebuild Zion and appear in glory. You will respond to the prayer of the destitute; You will not despise their plea, So Your Name O LORD will be declared in Zion and Your praise in Jerusalem when the peoples and kingdoms assemble to worship You. Psalms 102:13, 14, 16, 17

Israel's help is in the Name of the LORD, the Maker of heaven and earth. Psalms 124:8

Mighty One of Israel, You have chosen Jacob to be Your own, Israel to be Your treasured possession. Psalms 135:4

LORD, You have chosen Zion; You have desired it for Your dwelling, therefore You declare: "This is my resting place for ever and ever; here I will sit enthroned, for I have desired it-- I will bless her with abundant provisions; her poor will I satisfy with food. I will clothe her priests with salvation, and her saints will ever sing for joy. "Here I will make a horn grow for David and set up a lamp for my anointed one. I will clothe his enemies with shame, but the crown on his head will be resplendent." Psalms 132:13 - 18

Those who trust in You O LORD are like Mount Zion, which cannot be shaken but endures forever. As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so You, O LORD, surround Your people both now and forevermore. Psalms 125:1, 2

May all who hate Zion be turned back in shame. May they be like grass on the roof, which withers before it can grow; with it the reaper cannot fill his hands, nor the one who gathers fill his arms. May those who pass by not say, "The blessing of the LORD be upon you; we bless you in the Name of the LORD." Psalms 129:5 – 8

We will listen to what God the LORD will say; he promises peace to his people, his saints-- but let them not return to folly. Surely his salvation is near those who fear him, that his glory may dwell in Israel. Psalms 85:8, 9

For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, for Jerusalem's sake I will not remain quiet, till her righteousness shines out like the dawn, her salvation like a blazing torch. Isaiah 62:1

Almighty God, make known Your Holy Name among Your people Israel. Sovereign Lord, no longer allow Your Holy Name to be profaned. May all the nations know that You the LORD are the Holy One in Israel. Ezekiel 39:7

Shepherd of Israel, surely You will keep Your word and return to Zion and dwell in Jerusalem. Then in accordance with Your word, Jerusalem will be called the City of Truth and the mountain of the LORD will be called the Holy Mountain. Zechariah 8:3

When they sin against You--for there is no one who does not sin--and You become angry with them and give them over to the enemy, who takes them captive to his own land, far away or near; and if they have a change of heart in the land where they are held captive, and repent and plead with You in the land of their conquerors and say, 'We have sinned, we have done wrong, we have acted wickedly'; and if they turn back to You with all their heart and soul in the land of their enemies who took them captive, and pray to You toward the land You gave their fathers, toward the city You have chosen and the temple I have built for Your Name; then from heaven, Your dwelling place, hear their prayer and their plea, and uphold their cause. And forgive Your people, who have sinned against You; forgive all the offenses they have committed against You, and cause their conquerors to show them mercy; for they are Your people and Your inheritance, whom You brought out of Egypt, out of that iron-smelting furnace." 1 Kings 8:44 - 51
